

We are so tired of the big money people trying to block us at every turn. We purchased the XM radio for entertainment and information purposes and now find that the NAB is attempting to take that away from us. Why is it that whenever something new comes along that takes hold, big business have to step in and take it away?

Please show them that the citizens, the "general public" should have a choice.